Resident of the Month

Meet Joyce Reed! Joyce was born in Painsdale, Michigan. She was married to Leonard Reed for 58 years. They had one daughter named Kelly. Joyce is a grandmother and a great-grandma of 2.

She enjoyed doing clerical work and worked for the WI State Reformatory in Green Bay right out of high school. She also worked in a civil engineering office.

Some of her hobbies were landscaping (especially mowing the lawn), making costumes and other sewing projects.

Her favorite thing about living at Allouez Parkside Village is the staff.

If she could any advice it would be to be kind to others and respect what they have to say.

★ Shining Star ★

Becky Schouten – CNA

Becky was chosen to be this month's shining star because of her hard work and caring attitude. She has been with Assisted Living by Hillcrest since October.

The thing she likes best about her job is the fact that she can take care of people who need help. She looks at the residents like she would her own grandparents. In ten years, she sees herself still being a CNA and taking care of people who really need it. She also sees herself going to school to be a Medical Assistant. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her fiancé when she can. She loves spending time with her daughter, watching football and baseball games. She also loves to camp.

She has a daughter whom currently lives with her aunt. She has two brothers, one sister, two step-brothers and five nieces and nephews.

Hawaii was her favorite place to visit because it is not too loud or too quiet. It's just perfect. The people there are nice to others as well.

Her favorite meal is lasagna, garlic bread, salad with French dressing and green beans.

Christmas is her favorite time of the year because it's a time of joy and happiness.

If Becky won the lottery, she would buy a house for her fiancé, her daughter, and herself to live in, so they could be a happy family.

Thank you Becky for all you do!

The Greatest Generation

It was the journalist Tom Brokaw who coined the phrase “The Greatest Generation” as a tribute to those born in 1924 and earlier. This generation faced more than its fair share of hardship, coming of age during the Great Depression and fighting the evils of World War II. There are still many lessons to be learned from this generation, and if we listen carefully enough, we might even learn that any generation can be called the “greatest.”

The Greatest Generation has also been called the G.I. Generation by historians, due to the fact that 16 million Americans served in the military during World War II.

This shared trial created what has been called a “collective ethos,” a united mindset that grew out of the rally against the oppressive tyranny of the Nazis in defense of freedom. America was a small country reeling from the Great Depression. The United States Army was smaller than that of Portugal. The Great Depression had also decimated government coffers, making it difficult to find money to support the military. But thanks to a never-say-die, can-do attitude forged in the hardships of the Great Depression, Americans went to work and by 1945 had built a massive army capable of fighting the Pacific, Asia, Europe, and in the Mediterranean, as well as a civilian workforce to support it. Surely there were defeats and missteps in battle, but the Greatest Generation never did cast blame or look for a scapegoat. They instead forged ahead to the next challenge. Perseverance, bravery, and mutual respect would become their generational hallmarks.

Lessons learned during the war were put to use in postwar America. There was little room for patience or endless hemming and hawing on the battlefield. So, too, in the boardroom, in laboratories, and in politics. The most vicious policy fights on the floor of Congress gave way to mutual respect when the day was done. An entire generation had struggled together, fought together, and sacrificed together. This common experience united the Greatest Generation in bonds that could not be broken.

January Birthdays

In astrology, those born between January 1–19 are Capricorn's Goats. Goats are responsible masters of self-control and considered some of the hardest workers in the zodiac. They are practical planners and leaders who value experience and expertise. Those born from January 20–31 are the Water Bearers of Aquarius. These deep-thinking intellectuals have big and original dreams. The world is full of possibilities, and Aquarians seek freedom in order to reach their greatest potential.
