Resident of the Month

Leonard Rizzo

Meet Leonard! He was born and raised in Kansas City, Missouri. Len relocated to Green Bay due to job opportunities. He was a teacher at Northeast Wisconsin Technical College, teaching writing and composition. Len's favorite part about teaching was working with the kids, and he found it to be very rewarding.

Len has three children- two boys and a girl, and family is very important to him. Some of Len's hobbies include watching movies, reading, going to the movies, and going out to eat. He loves Italian food, especially lasagna! Leonard is also excellent at trivia and enjoys exercising his mind and body.

Leonard's favorite part about living at Allouez Parkside Village 2 is the people- everyone is very kind and helpful. If Leonard could give you any advice, it would be to "hang in there, and don't give up!"

Shining Star

Stephanie Stilen

Stephanie was chosen to be this month's shining star because she is a dedicated hard worker, is great with her residents, and is kind to her coworkers.

Stephanie was born in New London, WI. She has been with us since November 18, 2013- over 7 years!

Some of Stephanie's hobbies include going to rock concerts, camping, hiking, fishing- anything outdoors. She loves waterfalls and two of favorite places include Amnicon Falls Campground or Willow River Campground, both in Wisconsin.

Family is very important to Stephanie and her whole family has a close relationship. She has 1 younger brother. Her favorite food is sushi and her favorite time of the year is the fall because of all the beautiful colors, and her favorite holiday is Halloween.

Stephanie's favorite part about her job is helping those who need it most. She also feels as though the residents are almost like her second family!

In 10 years, Stephanie sees herself in a new career, a wife and mother, but most of all, happy!

If she won the lottery, Stephanie would buy land and move to Oregon. She would also make sure her family is taken care of, and even potentially open an animal rescue.

Congratulations Stephanie, and thank you for everything you do!

The Greatest Generation

It was the journalist Tom Brokaw who coined the phrase “The Greatest Generation” as a tribute to those born in 1924 and earlier. This generation faced more than its fair share of hardship, coming of age during the Great Depression and fighting the evils of World War II. There are still many lessons to be learned from this generation, and if we listen carefully enough, we might even learn that any generation can be called the “greatest.”

The Greatest Generation has also been called the G.I. Generation by historians, due to the fact that 16 million Americans served in the military during World War II.

This shared trial created what has been called a “collective ethos,” a united mindset that grew out of the rally against the oppressive tyranny of the Nazis in defense of freedom. America was a small country reeling from the Great Depression. The United States Army was smaller than that of Portugal. The Great Depression had also decimated government coffers, making it difficult to find money to support the military. But thanks to a never-say-die, can-do attitude forged in the hardships of the Great Depression, Americans went to work and by 1945 had built a massive army capable of fighting the Pacific, Asia, Europe, and in the Mediterranean, as well as a civilian workforce to support it. Surely there were defeats and missteps in battle, but the Greatest Generation never did cast blame or look for a scapegoat. They instead forged ahead to the next challenge. Perseverance, bravery, and mutual respect would become their generational hallmarks.

Lessons learned during the war were put to use in postwar America. There was little room for patience or endless hemming and hawing on the battlefield. So, too, in the boardroom, in laboratories, and in politics. The most vicious policy fights on the floor of Congress gave way to mutual respect when the day was done. An entire generation had struggled together, fought together, and sacrificed together. This common experience united the Greatest Generation in bonds that could not be broken.

January Birthdays

In astrology, those born between January 1–19 are Capricorn's Goats. Goats are responsible masters of self-control and considered some of the hardest workers in the zodiac. They are practical planners and leaders who value experience and expertise. Those born from January 20–31 are the Water Bearers of Aquarius.
