FOOT CARE Trisha, RN/Certified Foot Care Specialist, has made a slight increase in her fee & will be charging $40 for services, effective January 1, 2022.

REMINDERS

- ❖ As the Holidays approach, if you will be taking your loved one out of the facility, please report the date & time to the facility in advance so staff is able to have the resident ready with pills packed to take along if necessary
- ❖ If you'd like to reserve the vending machine room for a small personal gathering, please contact Molly to coordinate this
- ❖ If placing fresh food in your loved ones' refrigerator, please do your best to label it with the drop off date.
- ❖ If your loved one receives a new insurance card for 2022, please visit the office so we can make a photocopy & update our records

VISITATION

- We ask for all visitors to complete the sign in screening process in the front entrance upon each visit.
- WEAR A MASK while visiting, no matter your vaccination status
- Children are welcome to visit as long as they are wearing a properly fitting face mask.
- Visitation should be in the resident's room and NOT in common areas. Please do not walk about the facility.
- At this time, we are unable to accommodate visitors to attend activities with residents

There is a lot going on around the facility this month! Here is just a glimpse -

- December 1 Piano with Delores
- December 3 Music with Steve Thuss
- December 8 Music with Tom Enneper
- December 13 Mission Karaoke
- December 14 Inspiration with Brenda
- December 16 Music with Bill Bernico
- December 19 Piano with Elizabeth
- December 20 Music with Don Bongers
- December 22 Protestant Church service
- December 28 Inspiration with Brenda
- December 31 New Year's Eve Party with music by Jerry Krueger

Resident Christmas Party - December 21st

The residents will enjoy a special lunch, live music by TJ & Lynn & a possible appearance by the Jolly Man himself!

- In November, the residents enjoyed making dog biscuits for a local animal shelter. This month they will be baking traditional Holiday treats
- Thank you to Mrs. Geiger's First graders at Brillion Public - they shared joy by making creative & colorful Thanksgiving cards for the residents!
- Thank you to the Vande Burgt family for their beautiful poinsettia donation
