RESIDENT OF THE MONTH MARY REINKE

Mary grew up on a dairy farm in Brillion. She from a large family of 12 children.

Mary and her husband raised their family in Hilbert. They adopted four children- one boy and three girls. They are now blessed with four grandchildren.

Mary wore many hats. She worked at a filing station, was a bank teller, managed a store for several years, and was a caretaker for her husband. In her spare time, she was a member on a bowling league and a leader of Boy Scout Troop for several years. Mary had many gardens, growing flowers and vegetables.

She enjoys religion, singing, and the music most here at Brillion West Haven.

THANK YOU!!!!

We would like to thank Holy Family Church for their generous donation of supplies for our Bingo buck store. It is greatly appreciated.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Will Logan

Will has worked at Brillion West Haven for 2 and half months. Will's favorite part of the job is joking around and interreacting with the residents. Will was born in Florida but spent most of his childhood in St. Louis Missouri. He did little moving around, to living in Arizona and then moving to Wisconsin in 2017. Will is from a family of 7 and is the middle child of 5 siblings.

Will has many hobbies but his main ones are drawing, creative writing, hiking, aromatherapy, playing video games, and working on his car. Will's favorite sport teams are Seattle Seahawks and Indiana Pacers. His favorite food is orange chicken with white rice.

In 10 years, Will's sees himself as a full-blown travel nurse and deeply invested in his career. Will has not had an opportunity to travel but would love to travel to the pacific northwest.

If Will won the lottery he would move to the pacific northwest and buy his favorite care which is the Mazda Rx-7. He would also buy a lot of shoes.

Recipe of the month: LASAGNA SOUP
